What is the Friends of Dahomey?

The Friends of Dahomey is a support group for the refuge that works with the refuge staff on common goals.
A Brief History

- Established in 2004
- Started with a 12 person interim board
- Achieved Non-profit status in 2004
- In 2005 an “official” board was elected and meets once a month
- Has grown to over 30 members
Volunteers

The Friends group provides volunteer help and organizes volunteer workdays with organizations willing to help.
Outreach

- The friends group has been active in outreach by setting up an information booth at local events such as the Crosstie Festival, Octoberfest and the 4-H wildlife jamboree.
- Provide programs for civic clubs and other organizations
Habitat management

The friends group has installed 20 bluebird boxes and monitor their success annually.
Citizen Science

- December 14, 2004
- First Christmas bird count in Bolivar County
- Ruddy Ground Dove was recorded for the first time east of the Mississippi
Interpretation/Education

The friends group supports the interpretation efforts of the refuge by volunteering to lead group tours and nature walks.
Fundraising

- In 2004 the Friends group received a $5,000 start up grant from the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation.
- The group also earns money through shirt and hat sales, donations and membership dues.
- Fundraising efforts are ongoing and we are currently seeking additional grants, corporate sponsors and donations.
Current Projects

- Constructing a 1 mile all weather walking trail
- Planning a hummingbird/butterfly garden in front of the Dahomey office
- Seeking a grant to build a photo blind on the refuge
- Improving interpretive signs on the refuge
- Long range planning document
