

ENGAGING THE SOCIAL SCIENCES SSC 101

COURSE SYLLABUS FALL 2008

Course Information:

Meeting Place: 228 Kethley Hall

CRN: 45452

Meeting Times: Wednesdays, 2:00–4:00 pm (Oct. 8–Dec. 3, 2008)

Instructor Information:

Instructor: Dr. Alan Barton

Telephone: (662) 846-4097

Office: 214 Kethley Hall

E-mail: abarton@deltastate.edu

Webpage: http://ntweb.deltastate.edu/vp_academic/abarton/

Office Hours:

The instructor holds regular office hours at the following times:

Tuesday 2:00–5:00 pm

Wednesday 9:50–11:40 am

Thursday 2:00–5:00 pm

If you cannot make one of these times, contact the professor to set up an appointment.

Course Webpage:

Additional materials and updated course information can be found on the course webpage:

http://ntweb.deltastate.edu/vp_academic/abarton/SSC101FA08/SSC101Syllabus.htm

Course Overview:

This course is to be taken by all students during their first semester with a major in the Social Sciences (Sociology, Geography, Political Science, Social Science Education, Applied Development Studies, Social Sciences, Criminal Justice).

The purpose of the course is to introduce the various degree programs in the Social Sciences, to complete assessment activities in the Division of Social Sciences, and to better prepare you for academic life at DSU.

Course Materials:

You will need two items for this course. First is a blue book, which we will use for in-class writing assignments. The second item is a 2" or 3" binder that you can use for your portfolio. You can purchase these items at the university bookstore, at a retail stationery store, or at various on-line sources.

Course Objectives:

- (1) Understand the various degree programs in the Division of Social Sciences.
- (2) Complete all assessment requirements for the Division of Social Sciences.
- (3) Begin a portfolio to collect and highlight the work you complete at DSU.
- (4) Learn about campus resources available to assist you during your time at DSU.
- (5) Develop a plan for completing your degree and strategies for successfully achieving your goals.
- (6) Build a more engaged student body in the Division of Social Sciences and at DSU.
- (7) Meet other students in the Division of Social Sciences.

Responsibilities and Grading:

Your primary responsibility in this course is to come to class each week, participate and complete all of the assigned work. We will do some in-class informal writing, and you will work outside of class on a portfolio of your work. You will also visit your advisor at least twice during the semester to complete assignments.

Each assignment is worth a specified number of points. There are a total of 100 points available over the course of the semester. If you finish the semester with at least 90 points, you will get an A in the course. If you finish with between 80 and 89 points, you will get a B. For 70 to 79 points, you will get a C, and for 60 to 69 points, you will get a D. If you finish with less than 60 points, you will get an F in the course and will have to repeat it the following semester.

You are expected to comply with all academic standards and ethics as defined in the DSU Bulletin and Handbook. You are expected to do your own work in all of your courses. Plagiarism, fraud and other forms of cheating is NOT tolerated at DSU, and the minimum sanction for cheating in this course is a zero on the assignment. DSU's Vice President for Academic Affairs monitors all cases of cheating on campus, and repeat violations will result in severe sanctions, including expulsion.

For more information on academic honesty, see the DSU Library's "Plagiarism Prevention: A Guide for Students," available on the library website.

~~~~~
16.9% of Mississippians have a college degree; For the U.S., the figure is 24.4% (Source: U.S. Census, 2000). When you finish your degree, you will join an elite group. What is your strategy for finishing your degree?

"From everyone who has been given much, much will be demanded; and from the one who has been entrusted with much, much more will be asked" (Luke 12:48). Will you be ready to live up to the responsibilities of a college graduate?

Learning Opportunities:

You must complete all of the following activities:

(1) Attendance (25 points)

- You must attend all class sessions
- Please sign the attendance sheet at each class meeting; this is the official record of attendance, and you may not receive credit for attending if you do not sign the sheet
- For each class session that you miss, 4 points will be deducted from your attendance score
- You will not pass this course if you do not come to class
- You can be excused from one class period for illness or an official university activity that conflicts with the class, if you bring a note from a doctor or administrator verifying the reason for your absence
- If you cannot be in class for any other reason, please notify the instructor in advance, and you will receive half credit; For excused absences, you will receive half credit for additional absences after the first; The best way to notify the instructor is through e-mail

(2) In Class Discussion (15 points)

- You should participate actively in class discussions
- Disruptive and disrespectful behavior is not tolerated
- Make sure all cell phones and pagers are turned off during class

(3) Informal Writing and Portfolio Essays (15 points)

- We will use the blue books for informal in-class writing assignments; the instructor will collect and read your blue books twice during the semester
- You will prepare essays on the in-class writing during the semester; these essays will go in your portfolio
- The assignment for each essay is available on the Course Outline section of the on-line syllabus

(4) Working with Your Advisor I (15 points)

- Print out a copy of the advisor worksheet, linked from the Course Outline on the on-line syllabus
- On the scheduled date, you will be given a sheet with various questions
- You then must schedule a meeting with your advisor, and discuss the questions on the sheet with him or her
- Type up your findings, along with your reflections on the meeting
- Turn this in on the scheduled date

(5) Working with Your Advisor II (10 points)

- Prepare a Course and Graduation Plan as specified in the assignment found on the Course Outline section of the on-line syllabus
- You will meet again with your advisor and go over your Course and Graduation Plan
- At this visit, you will also review your Portfolio with your advisor
- You will submit your Course and Graduation Plan, with your advisor's approval form, on the specified date

(6) Course and Graduation Plan (20 points)

- Prior to your second visit with your advisor, prepare a draft Course and Graduation Plan, specifying the courses you intend to take each semester and your plan for graduating from DSU
- Review your Course and Graduation Plan with your advisor at the second meeting
- Take your Portfolio with you to the second meeting and review your Portfolio with your advisor
- Have your advisor sign the Advisor Approval Form attesting he/she has reviewed and approves of your Course and Graduation Plan
- Submit your Course and Graduation Plan on the specified date

(7) Critical Engagement (±10 points)

- You can earn or lose up to 10 points on your final grade, based on factors such as the motivation, interest, and improvement you demonstrate in the course

Note: ALL work that you submit, except in-class work, should be presented in a professional manner; that is, it should be typed, submitted on time, and if there are multiple pages, they should be attached with a staple or paper clip.

~~~~~
An international study of 13-year-olds ... found that Koreans ranked first in mathematics and Americans last. When asked if they thought they were "good at mathematics," only 23 percent of the Korean youngsters said "yes" -- compared to 68 percent of American 13-year-olds. The American educational dogma that students should "feel good about themselves" was a success in its own terms -- though not in any other terms.

--Thomas Sowell (quoted in J.M. Henslin, 2004)

Course Outline:

Day/Date	Topic	Speaker/Activity/Assignment
Week 1: Course Introduction
Wed. Oct. 8	Welcome to the Division of Social Sciences	◊ Dr. Albert Nylander, Chair of the Division of Social Sciences
	Engaging the Social Sciences Degree Programs in the Social Sciences	◊ Dr. Garry Jennings, Professor of Political Science
	Review the Course Schedule	Discussion
Week 2: The Professional Portfolio
Wed. Oct. 15	Engaging the Social Sciences Social Justice & Criminology Degree Program	◊ Ms. Page Logan, Instructor in Social Justice & Criminology ◊ Dr. Tiffany Guidry, Assistant Professor of Social Justice & Criminology
	Course Goals	Discussion
	Keys to Learning in College	Slides 1: Engaging the Social Sciences Slides 2: Engagement in Learning
	Creating Portfolios: The Professional Portfolio and the Assessment Portfolio	Discussion Handout: Portfolio Components
Week 3: Assessment-Based Education
Wed. Oct. 22	Engaging the Social Sciences Social Science Education Degree Program	◊ Dr. Albert Nylander, Professor of Sociology & Community Development
	Assessment-Based Education	Reading on Assessment in Education “What is an Educated Person?” by J.G. Gaff (Peer Review , Fall 2004)
	Setting and Achieving College and Career Goals	In-Class Essay: What are your goals in college? Discussion Assignment: Prepare a Statement of Purpose (Due Oct. 29)

Day/Date	Topic	Speaker/Activity/Assignment
Week 4: Where To Go For Help
Wed. Oct. 29	Working with Your Advisor I	Assignment: Interview Your Advisor (Due Nov. 12) Handout: Advisor Worksheet
	Assessing Your Background	In-Class Essay: Who are you? Discussion Assignment: Prepare a Biographical Essay (Due Nov. 5)
	Setting College and Career Goals	Submit: Statement of Purpose
	Learning Opportunities on Campus	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◊ Dr. Susan Hines, Office of Information Technologies ◊ Dr. Richard Houston, Counseling and Testing Center ◊ Dr. Susan Allen Ford, Writing Center ◊ Mrs. Diane Blansett, Academic Support Lab ◊ Mr. Michael Mounce, Roberts-LaForge Library Reference Dept.
Week 5: Developing Study Skills
Wed. Nov. 5	Engaging the Social Sciences Political Science Degree Program	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◊ Dr. Leslie Fadiga-Stewart, Assistant Professor of Political Science ◊ Ms. Arlene Sanders, Instructor in Political Science ◊ Dr. Garry Jennings, Professor of Political Science
	Assessing Your Background	Submit: Biographical Essay
	What Do I Want to Know? Active Learning Strategies for Studying in College	Discussion Slides: Active Learning Strategies
	Engaging the Social Sciences Social Sciences Degree Program with a Concentration in Geography	◊ Dr. Mark Bonta, Associate Professor of Geography

Day/Date	Topic	Speaker/Activity/Assignment
Week 6: Assessing Social Science Knowledge
Wed. Nov. 12	Engaging the Social Sciences Social Sciences Degree Program with a Concentration in Applied Development Studies	◇ Dr. Debarashmi Mitra, Assistant Professor of Sociology & Community Development
	Working with Your Advisor I	Submit: Advisor Interview and Advisor Worksheet/Notes
	Learning Style	Submit: Learning Style Essay
	Working with Your Advisor II	Assignment: Develop Plan for Courses & Graduation (Due Dec. 3) Handout: Advisor Approval
	The Value of a College Education	In-Class Essay: What does college mean to you? Discussion Assignment: Prepare a Statement of Values (Due Nov. 19)
	Evaluating Learning	Pre-Test on Social Sciences
Week 7: Academic Honesty
Wed. Nov. 19	Academic Honesty and Ethics	In-Class Essay: Under what conditions would you cheat at DSU? Discussion
	The Value of a College Education	Submit: Statement of Values
	Engaging the Social Sciences Social Sciences Degree Program with a Concentration in Sociology	◇ Dr. Paulette Meikle, Assistant Professor of Sociology & Community Development
Week 8: Student Engagement
Wed. Dec. 3	Becoming an Engaged Student	In-Class Essay: What is an engaged student? Discussion Submit: Blue Book
	Working with Your Advisor II Maintaining Your Student Portfolio	Review Professional Portfolio with Division of Social Sciences Faculty Discussion Submit: Plan for Courses & Graduation
	Course Evaluation

~~~~~
Learning is least useful when it is private and hidden; it most powerful when it becomes public and communal. Learning flourishes when we take what we think we know and offer it as community property among fellow learners so that it can be tested, examined, challenged, and improved before we internalize it.

~Lee Shulman

~~~~~

Additional Resources:

Roberts-LaForge Library

Reference Desk: (662) 846-4431

Office of Information Technology

Bailey Hall 114

OIT Help Desk: (662) 846-4444

Writing Center

Bailey Hall 211

(662) 846-4088

Office of Career Services

H.L. Nowell Union 300

(662) 846-4646

Academic Support Lab

H. L. Nowell Union 311

(662) 846-4654

Counseling & Testing Center

O.W. Reily Student Health Center

(662) 846-4690

~~~~~
PREPARATION and PERSEVERANCE are the KEYS to SUCCESS

Be prepared; don't give up